Grand Rapids Business Executive, Dan Butler receives Certified Business Intermediary designation

Grand Rapids, MI – M. Daniel “Dan” Butler, of Grand Rapids, MI, recently received the prestigious Certified Business Intermediary (CBI®) designation during IBBA’s Conference for Professional Development Educational Program and Conference in Frisco, Texas.

Business intermediaries work with business owners who want to acquire, merge or sell a business. Business broker and intermediary transactions are valued at more than $1.5 billion per year and affect the economic well-being of thousands of communities in the United States and around the world.

Dan was awarded the CBI designation after demonstrating a superior knowledge about the functions and applications of business intermediary services, documenting practical experience, participating in a rigorous curriculum of at least 64 credit hours of Association courses, passing a comprehensive examination and pledging to uphold and practice IBBA’s Code of Ethics.

The International Business Brokers Association (IBBA) has more than 1900 cooperative business brokers and intermediaries across Canada, Mexico, Asia, Europe, Australia, New Zealand and the United States. The association awards the prestigious designation “Certified Business Intermediary (CBI)” to members who demonstrate professional excellence through their intermediary experience and education, and pass a comprehensive examination.

Dan is a Managing Director for Aetherian. Aetherian is affiliated with VERCOR (www.vercoradvisor.com).
